Dear Colleagues,

We are planning a Midwest Several Complex Variables conference to take place April 29 - May 1, 2022 at the University of Notre Dame.

This NSF-funded meeting will bring the SCV community together in celebration of Mei-Chi Shaw's mathematical legacy. The present list of speakers is below. Further updates, including conference program and information about financial support, will be announced later.

For now, please save the dates and help us spread the word. Note also that we will adapt plans as needed to respond to the state of the covid pandemic.

The organizers,

Dan Coman, Syracuse U.
Jeff Diller, U. Notre Dame
Siqi Fu, Rutgers U.
Qing Han, U. of Notre Dame
Loredana Lanzani, Syracuse U.

Invited speakers:

David Barrett
Eric Bedford
Debraj Chakrabarti
John Erik Fornaess
Anne-Katrin Gallagher
Phillip Harrington
Joseph Kohn
Christine Laurent-Thiebaut
Laszlo Lempert
Duong Hong Phong
Emil Straube
Liz Vivas
Paul Yang
