

Driving Success through TEAMWORK

88% of employees prefer collaboration over competition.*

Teamwork begins with commitment.

Working together to accomplish a common goal is the foundation for successful teamwork at the University of Notre Dame.

The Office of Human Resources at Notre Dame is committed to providing you with resources to collaborate effectively with your team. Skillport.nd.edu is an online learning platform available to you to help build your skills for success. It provides an extensive range of learning content including online books on team building, interactive courseware, and short video content.
