

A non-exhaustive list of mentorship resources including networking and training opportunities as well as example mentorship programs implemented at various institutions.

Resources and Example Mentorship Programs	Aims	Website or contact information
Association Level Mentorship Programs
American Association for Biological Anthropologists Career Development Committee	Administers the Cobb Professional Development Grant to support early career scientists, and organizes Career Development Panels at the annual conference	https://physanth.org/about/committees/career-development/
American Association for Biological Anthropologists Committee on Diversity IDEAS (Increasing Diversity in Evolutionary Anthropological Sciences)	Provides undergraduate and graduate students with a day-long science and mentoring workshop, networking events, and conference travel support	https://physanth.org/about/committees/diversity/cod-ideas-increasing-diversity-evolutionary-anthropological-sciences/
Association for Women in Science	Advances the careers and success of women in STEM fields through workshops, advocacy, scholarships, and training opportunities	https://www.awis.org/
Biological Anthropology Women's Mentoring Network	Supports the professional development of and provides safe spaces for women in biological anthropology	https://bawmn.org/
Human Biology Association Community-Building and Networking Program	Provides a formal structure to pair graduate students and post-doctoral researchers with faculty to facilitate informal mentorship relationships	https://www.humbio.org/community-building-networking/
Women in Science and Health or Women in Science and Engineering	Institution specific groups that support women (at all career levels) in STEM fields	Example Programs: https://www.stonybrook.edu/wise/ https://wise.umich.edu/
Mentorship Training and Resource Repositories
Center for the Improvement of Mentored Experiences in Research	Provides a broad range of resources for mentees and mentors including mentor training, established mentorship curricula, curriculum development guidance, and mentorship workshops	https://cimerproject.org/
MentorNet	Nurtures a positive culture of mentorship in STEM fields	http://www.mentornet.net/
National Research Mentoring Network	Improves mentoring relationships through training programs, unconscious bias	https://nrmnet.net/#undergradPopup courses, and anti-racism resources

National Research Mentoring Network Culturally Aware Mentoring	An initiative that helps mentors develop culturally responsive mentorship skills	https://cimerproject.org/culturally-aware-mentoring-resources-2/
Examples of Institutional Mentorship Programs and Resources
Arizona State University Resources for Faculty Who Mentor Graduate Students	Resources for faculty on how to advise and mentor effectively	https://graduate.asu.edu/current-students/enrich-your-experience/mentoring/resources-faculty-who-mentor-graduate-students/
Brown University Advising and Mentoring Resources for Faculty	Resources for faculty on how to advise and mentor effectively	https://www.brown.edu/academics/gradschool/academics-research/graduate-advising-and-mentoring/advising-and-mentoring-resources-faculty
Duke University “Cultivating a Culture of Mentoring”	Provides resources for graduate students and faculty to familiarize them with what mentoring is and how to develop successful mentoring relationships	https://gradschool.duke.edu/professional-development/cultivating-culture-mentoring
University of California Riverside Graduate Student Mentorship Program	An example of a formal mentoring program to support first year graduate students	https://gradmentors.ucr.edu/
University of Notre Dame Leadership Advancing Socially Engaged Research	An experiential training program for graduate students to help them map out their career in meaningful and impactful ways	https://graduateschool.nd.edu/graduate-training/leadership/laser/
University of Virginia Mentoring Institute	Formal mentoring program aimed at supporting graduate students	https://graddiversity.virginia.edu/mentoringinstitute