

Integrability of rough almost complex structures

Michael Taylor
University of North Carolina

We extend the Newlander-Nirenberg theorem to manifolds with almost complex structures that have somewhat less than Lipschitz regularity. We discuss the regularity of local holomorphic coordinates in the integrable case, and make contact with versions of the complex Frobenius theorem. This is joint work with C. D. Hill.